Dense Fog and a Nor'cester Off New England -Rescues by Life Savers. Boston, Oct. 6.-A dense fog and stiff northeasterly breeze which prevailed along the New England coast after 9 o'clock last night wrecked several vessels but so far there have been no reports of loss of life. The three-masted schooner Katie G. Robinson of Somer's Point, N. J., bound for New York with a cargo of laths, went ashore on Peaked Hill Bars shortly before daybreak and will be a total loss. Her crew was rescued by the Peaked Hill life-saving crew. Capt. Rich of the Pamet River life saving station reports that a large north-bound passenger steamer ran aground off his station at 3:15 o'clock this morning but worked herself free and proceeded on her course, apparently uninjured.

The coal-laden schooner Stephen Bennett, Philadelphia for Boston, struck on the Second Ledge off North Scituate at 1:30 o'clock this morning, but was floated at high tide with the assistance of the life-saving crew. The two-masted schooner Onward with 500 barrels of cement for Fort Foster at Gerrish Island, Kittery Point, Me, went ashore at Odierne Point near Portsmouth during the night and will be a total loss. The crew was taken off by the life savers. The schooner Eastern Queen was caught on a lee shore at Portland by the sudden shift of wind andwas driven upon the rocks.
